Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Catherine Nimon (illustrator). 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Magical Rainbow draws on color, sound, and vibration. It allows children to use their imaginations while feeling, sensing, and experiencing an energy changing adventure. Caleb takes you on his journey when he moves to a new island. He is all alone and feels sad. Then he wakes up one morning to a rainbow dancing in his bedroom, a talking tree, and a bird that changes colors 8 times. Through Caleb's adventure, you journey into his world where learning and wonderment go hand in hand and miracles happen. This is a simple, playful story for all to enjoy. The Magical Rainbow teaches us there is a rainbow in every child. It was created for children to connect with their divine life force, and inspiration for the expression of self. Color, vibration and sound teach us how to empower ourselves to open the energy force and increase power to enlighten the possibility of miracles. A chakra is an energy center. We have many energy centers in and around our body. This story is about the seven basic chakras. The Magical Rainbow welcomes the use of imagination and magic to help understand not only the energy parts of ourselves, but also how we create our own world day by day. Deb uses Caleb and Bella to balance yin/yang. The bird that changes color is the spiritual energy id each of us, urging us to move forward. With vivid illustrations and the fascination of story narrative, Deb encourages children to enter a world of learning and enjoy a magical sense of wonderment. Deb Ogg is a rare and gifted woman who positively influenced the lives of many...
