Not illustrated. 1898 Excerpt: .a tew queslions that I feel sure would be a benefit to all who are interested in this word-grinding craft. First, would you advise the use of a few appropriate cuts, we will say about three in an ad of four columns half? and don t you think cuts are liable to make an ad more pretty than forcible? Next. wouM you advise any one to continually use about the same display and same style of type until at last your ad would be recognized bv the people without seeing your name? Don t you think it s liable to lose its freshness and at last get stale in the eyes of the public? Next, do you think it policy to always have a heading? Doesn t it seem to you as though we all thought it necessary to first preach a little sermon before getting...
