Dragon Sutra

By Richard Marranca

Dark Oak Mysteries, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 228 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The beauty and luster of passion and love counterpointed by the darkness of the criminal underworld and the Cambodian holocaust taunt Jason, a young American college grad. He and Rachany, a beautiful woman who works at the Russian Market, are pursued by a mysterious foe, and they flee across Cambodia, Laos and Thailand. They see elephants in misty forests, exotic tribes, ancient cities. They end up in Burma's rebellion, where they are pulled into the violence, into the core of journeys - the adventure of life tinged with the search for meaning, purpose and love. It's a coming-of-age story that shows we all should be careful what we wish for. ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Richard Marranca has published many stories, essays and poems and has three online books available. He has taught for twenty-five years, culminating in a Fulbright to teach American studies at the University of Munich. He is president of the New Jersey chapter of Fulbright and a trustee of New Jersey College English Association. Richard has a doctorate from New York University...
