Excerpt: . . . 11 to significantly reduce the number of duty statuses while retaining sufficient over-sight and specificity to justify the budget request. While the exact number has not yet been determined, I anticipate a substantial reduction in duty statuses but it is highly unlikely, and probably not desirable that we will get to only two duty statuses as suggested by the Commission - on duty or off duty. The Secretary did not support the Commissions recommendations to remove end strength limits or to eliminate Active Duty for Operational Support. These provisions were enacted to enable Congress to monitor manpower management within the Department and they provide the Department with useful metrics to help manage the force. IV. Developing a Ready, Capable and Available Operational Reserve Developing and maintaining a ready, capable and available operational Reserve can only be accomplished if it is properly resourced. Funding an operational Reserve was one of two special interest items identified in the Secretarys guidance. Balancing resource requirements across the Department is always a challenge. Recognizing that the Services must properly resource the Guard and Reserve consistent with their force generation plans, the Secretary directed that each biennial Program Budget Review shall propose appropriate funding for the readiness requirements necessary to prepare and employ the Reserve components in their operational roles, based on the level of persistent conflict, and published utilization and fiscal guidance. The second item of special interest was the recommendation involving visibility and accountability of equipment for the Guard and Reserve. The Department has examined its current processes...
