This Is The Day: The March On Washington.

By Freed, Leonard; Bond, Julian (foreword); Dyson, Michael Eric (introduction); Farber, Paul (afterword).

Getty Publications, Los Angeles, 2013. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 128 pages. Hardcover with dustjacket. New book. BLACKS. This Is the Day: The March on Washington is a stirring photo-essay by photographer Leonard Freed documenting the March on Washington for Jobs and Freedom of August 28, 1963, the historic day on which Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. delivered his "I Have a Dream" speech at the base of the Lincoln Memorial. This book commemorates the fiftieth anniversary of the historic march that ultimately led to the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Never before published in book form, the seventy-five photographs in this volume were chosen from among the hundreds of images that Freed made in the nation's capitol before, during, and after the march. These images not only present us with stunning wide-angle views of hundreds of thousands of marchers overflowing the National Mall but also focus on small groups of people straining to see the speakers and on individual faces, each one filled with hope and yearning, epitomized by the beautiful young woman who throws her entire being into singing "We Shall Overcome." Accompanying the photographs are a first-hand, backstage account of the preparations leading up to...
