Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 223 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is the story of a man determined to make the most of everything life has to offer. He shares his experiences, thoughts and ideals in this remarkable book. Mark Bannister was born in Liverpool in 1965 - at an early age he was diagnosed as having a rare form of spinal muscular atrophy which required his use of a wheelchair. Because the condition was rare he felt somehow special and developed a strong desire to continually be the first to achieve what no other disabled person had done before. The book describes the challenges Mark faced as a child growing up with a disability. He shares many exciting and humorous episodes, each having a meaning that both contributed towards making him the person he is today, and developing his beliefs and ideologies in life. At an early age, unlike the cliché desires of being a fireman or an airline pilot, Mark had a great ambition to become a Grand Prix driver. As a step in this direction, he took up kart racing. He went on to become the first wheelchair person to receive a UK competition license and being crowned the annual provincial champion in his class on two occasions. His disability did not allow him to follow his desire of becoming an F1 driver and as such his interests changed to within his physical abilities. Throughout College he became more aware of world politics, development and human rights issues, and subsequently gained a desire to travel and learn more about the cultures and countries of the world we live in. Because of this growing desire to travel and to work in community development, Mark delayed his...
