Brand New Book  Print on Demand .John Anderson, a military veteran and former slumlord, has amassed his fortune with ruthless ambition. While building his real estate empire, his underhanded business practices and insatiable greed earn him several enemies, including a mysterious woman that promises revenge after her tumultuous eviction. Now a reformed man with his crooked ways behind him, John is married to the woman of his dreams, living out his happy ending with Ann-until the crash. Helplessly watching his comatose wife, John seeks outside sources to restore her only to realize that an instance of careless driving may have been more than it appeared: a collision of past and present threatening to destroy his future with Ann. Long-forgotten until a series of recurring nightmares, John begins to wonder whether the revenge his eerie tenant promised six years ago is coming to life in the form of a curse. Desperate to find answers and unable to locate the woman that started it all, John ventures to Florida to investigate her only known relative, Craig Destinas. What they expect to be a quick trip to Haiti to confront Craig s relative becomes much more, revealing magic, darkness, and danger, overturning anything and everything John has ever believed. Determined to save his wife, John embarks on a journey across dangerous lands in pursuit of a legendary stone with great powers. From one thrilling scene to the next, Kaizen Kobe takes us on a mad hunt across continents, with a story rich in African culture, ancient history, and military expertise. An enthralling read Lazarus Curse is sure to have readers turning pages.
