How lovely are Thy dwellings fair, O Lord of hosts, how dear The pleasant tabernacles are, Where Thou dost dwell so near! My soul doth long and almost die, Thy courts, O Lord, to see: My heart and flesh aloud do cry, O living God, for Thee. There, even the sparrow, freed from wrong, Hath found a house of rest; The swallow there to lay her young, Hath built her brooding nest. Evn by Thy altars, Lord of hosts, They find their safe abode, And home they fly from round the coasts, Toward Thee, my King, my God! Jesus, heavenly Master! Thy love forsakes us not in this dark hour, Shedding around its holy power Like some bright star, that beaming oer us, Dispels the shades of death before us. Think Thou on us...
